The Two Friends

A Moral Story

Mia and Ana were best friends.

One day, Mia brought a box of crayons.

There were many bright colors inside.

Ana wanted to draw, but she had no crayons.

Mia gave Ana half of her crayons.

They sat together and drew a big rainbow.

Mia used red, yellow, and blue.

Ana used green, pink, and purple.

When they finished, they looked at the picture.

It was bright and beautiful.

Both girls were happy.

Moral: Sharing makes friendship stronger. ■
